

A photograph of an offshore wind farm at sunset. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a golden glow. In the foreground, a large service vessel is positioned, with its deck and cranes visible. Several wind turbines are scattered across the sea, their silhouettes against the bright sky.

JUNIOR DATAMANAGEMENT MANAGER

for our Service Team

GRS, founded in 2011, is the leading independent ship broking house within the renewable energy sector for chartering and sale and purchase of special offshore tonnage and equipment as well as arrangements of turnkey contracts.

GRS supports its clients for years in their global purchase enquiries and tender processes, and enables them to optimized logistics and costs with all major contractors in the industry.

The entire team provides best prices and availabilities according to the guiding principle: “Any Vessel Anytime”.

For every stage of an offshore project GRS provides out of its huge database its client with suitable turn-key-solution, vessels and equipment, for cost optimization from day one on.

The detailed knowledge of GRS’ experts, as well as the world-wide network makes GRS the leading shipbroker within the renewable energy market. More information is available at www.grs.group.

We are looking for new staff to enhance our team in Hamburg.

Join us as a Junior Datamanagement Manager (part-time)

Main Tasks Include:

- Updating ship & project database as well as corresponding research for data cleaning.
- Care of online platforms to ensure high data quality by updating and completing the profile information
- General administrative tasks (general administration, purchasing etc.)
- Correspondence with internal brokers

Skills and Experience:

- You are interested in database work and online content maintenance
- You are loyal, reliable and well organised and work very conscientiously
- Very good English skills are required and good German skills would be beneficial
- You have completed training, e.g. as a shipping clerk or office clerk.

If we have awakened your interest, please send an informative application including your desired salary and the earliest possible start date to: hr@grs.group